ASSESSOR REPORT

Paint River Project Grant Writing/Rich Sloat- Rich presented the Board with a proposal to write a grant for the primitive shelter part of the project. Currently there are some trees cut and the plan is to begin with two shelters. The grant is up to $10000. Trustee Adams addressed concerns about a request for parking on Shady Lane as well as a request to have a path wide enough to drive into the shelters. A driveway in was never mentioned before. In the past it was understood that these were going to be shelters accessed from the river. There are concerns about people using the shelters to party. Franzene mentioned concerns about additional maintenance and garbage. Sloat stated that previously the Iron County Watershed and Rise Up had committed to helping to maintain the area for a couple of years. He was not sure if that was still the case. A motion was made to authorize Sloat to write the grant. Supported by Adams. All ayes. Motion carried.
